WEDNESDAY, DEC. 11, 1907.

"Secretary Taft was feted in Moscow," but is being defeated in his own State of Ohio.

"Congressmen a lat ten," reports a New York Sun headline. Which may be true; but they are not all on the water wagon.

They may ring in a pinochle deck on Speaker Cannon during a poker game, but when Congress is in session he is the one generally accused of stacking the cards.

The editor of the Congressional Record is in a peculiar position, since he can reject no manuscript, however worthless, that comes to him through the regular Congressional channels.

While all this praise is being passed around to the men who aided in checking the panic, it looks as if recognition of some kind is due those patriotic people who left their money in the banks.

Richmond is to have 150 saloons and Judge Witt will see to it that none of them are in the residential portion of the city. 100,000 people, 150 drinking places. That will do.

Mr. Williams escorted Speaker Cannon to the chair, threw bouquete at him and then got on the floor to go for" his self improved rules by which the body is to be governed. Politicians are "queer ducks" anyhow.

The place for religion is not in the government but in the folks. In proportion as we are a God-fearing people we shall have a God-fearing government, no matter what is in our Constitution or on our coins.

But neither our Constitution nor our coins should ignore the existence of the Christian's God.

I would like to see Mr. Roosevelt take the Republican nomination for the Presidency, because next to Booker T. Washington, he would be more easily defeated than any man the Republican party might select, said Senator W. J. Stone, of Missouri, at the Raleigh last night. It is almost needless to mention that Senator Stone is a Democrat.—Washington Herald.

That's an unconstructed Rebel of a Democrat and we confess to an admiration for his courage of convictions.

When the first American Congress met in the city of New York 118 years ago, a message was sent on horseback to Mt. Vernon to notify General Washington of his election as President. He made the ride in seven days which was a second, if time would be all that is necessary to conquer the same space. How God-like in power is man, and yet when he gets to be a mere politician, how much the child of the Devil.

The Czar has a Douma on his hands and the Douma has a Czar on its hands. Between the two the people of Russia go on enjoying the honors of despotic rule, only the people don't take charge of Czar and Douma; in this age of freedom and force relief is inexplicable mystery. They run the burdens of government and could easily reduce their oppressive weights. It is said that some men get so accustomed to the darkness that their eyes will not tolerate the light. It may be so with these slaves of despotism.

BIG OFFER.

We call the attention of our readers to a remarkable club offer we are making in another column for the winter's reading. We are offering a value of $2.50 for $1.00. Your friends,

Lynchburg is now out after some of the good old territory of Campbell.

Mr. Carnegie adds two million to his endowment fund of the Carnegie Institute of Washington. The fund now $12,000,000. Ex-Governor Longino has been placed on the board of trustees. A compliment to a good man.

Conspicuously displayed in the department store of Woodard & Lothrop, of this city today, the leading establishment of the kind in Washington, is a magnificent display of Virginia apples which is attracting much attention.

The United States Court has made the following order in the matter of the Jamestown Exposition:

Receivers—Alvah H. Martin, Norfolk county, Edward T. Lamb, Norfolk city; William N. Gedder, Washington, D. C.

Counsel for Receivers—H. St. Geo. Tucker, of Lexington, president of the Exposition Company.

Receivers directed to take charge of all property of the Exposition Company at once and to enter into bond to be approved by the court.

National Bank of Commerce made depository for funds.

It is thought the government will acquire the property for a great military school.

Rough Creek.

This beautiful December morning I will have a little chat with the readers of the TIMES. Well, Christmas is almost here and I wonder if we will all be ready for it.

The farmers are busy plowing, stripping tobacco and trying to see who can have the biggest woodpile. Very good idea Labordid say.

Scrugge & Childress' store was burned at this place on November 18th. It was fortunate that he had not gotten in a fall stock. It was quite a loss, as he carried no insurance. It is not known how the fire started.

George Rogers, of near Pamplin, skipped to Farmville recently and was married.

It has been quite a changing around with the preachers since Conference, Rev. E. H. Fielding did come back to this charge I hear that Conference will send a single man on this circuit. No doubt some of the young ladies will like to hear that.

Success to the TIMES and its readers.

Will Mr. Roosevelt make this a "progressionally conducted" session of Congress?

Mr. Foraker's latest fire alarm seems to have awakened all the Republicans living in the vicinity of the blaze.

John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader in Congress is a pretty good rider, and he doesn't mind if the Democratic donkey does buck a little.

The weather is beginning to make false prophets out of the gentlemen who have been predicting an open winter.

It is said that the harth will be as dry as the moon in fifty thousand years. But Georgia will be that dry in a few days.

Senator Foraker would not object so much to making President Roosevelt King, except for the suspicion that he himself might be elected Jack.

Dr. E. W. Boatwright, President of Richmond College, will preach next Sunday, 15 h, at Liberty Chapel at 11 a. m., and at New Hope at 2 30 p. m. He will speak in the interest of education.

The State Highway Commissioner had Engineer Sam Scott to make a survey of the public road from the depot out to the old courthouse last week. A route on th Oakville road through Eidon farm was also surveyed at the same time. It is understood that the State is to aid in building these roads. We shall welcome the awakening of our people on this all important question, and we believe if only a few miles of good road could be built the object lesson would take root and we would soon have many miles of good road. We have long cherished the hope that Congress would make an appropriation for building a grand boulevard from the depot through the surrender grounds—a distance of about four miles. We shall have more to say of this later and we expect the bill to be presented at this session of Congress.

Mrs. Mathew J. Carson died at her home near the village Saturday night of pneumonia. She had been sick but a short time and her death was a shock to her friends The deceased was a lady of many fine traits of character, and was devoted to her church. She was a kind neighbor and did what she could to make the world better and the lives of those about her happy. She was in the 68th year of her age and her life had been spent in this county. Her remains were interred in the family square at Bethel church on Monday. She is survived by one daughter and one son, Mrs. A. D. Adkerson, of Lynchburg, and Mr. Eddie Carson, of county. She rests from her labors and her's is a sweet peace.

Little Alice McGill, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGill, died suddenly at her home in the village Sunday night. The child had been complaining for a day or so, but nothing serious was anticipated. She was seized with violent convulsions Sunday night and died quickly. Her physician pronounced her trouble to be indigestion. The death is especially sad. She was so bright, the only child of the family, and the entire town loved little Alice. The funeral took place from the Virginia Hotel, her home, and Dr. Winn, assisted by Revs. Hubard and Murphy conducted the service and the interment was made in Liberty Cemetery Tuesday. Great sorrow is expressed for the afflicted family by the entire community. And little Alice sleeps beneath a mound of beautiful floral designs the work of her bereaved friends and playmates here, while the Great White Throne is richer with another precious jewel.

Warm and Dry to Stay Well

Now is the time when the doctors gets busy and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet Dry This is the advice of an old eminent authority who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble start right here, and also tells what to do in case of attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Karzon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity when shown the prescription stated that they can either supply the o ingredients, or if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.
